April 2009

Greetings Emmaus Family!

Can you believe it? March has come and almost gone. We had a Chrysalis flight last month, Men's Walk #110 is a week old, and at the time of this writing, Women's Walk #111 has just been completed. WOW!

These past two weekends have been hectic. Pilgrims coming to the campground on Thursday nights with a "deer in the headlights" look. Some even look around like they're trying to find an escape route. Then after all the clapping was over on Thursday night and the trip downstairs started, these men and women lives were beginning to change. After hearing powerful talks, wonderful singing, laughing, crying, playing, praying, comes Sunday night. Are these the same men and women we saw just a few hours earlier? Their faces shine. Smiles replace the half nervous grins we saw earlier. Love abounds. Our Emmaus family has grown again, and how it has grown!

I want to thank Larry Russell and Colleen Bagley for leading Walks #110 and #111. I know this was a special time for them and for the pilgrims. I would like to thank you and the team that you led for a job well done! Now, we need to start praying for Walks #112 and #113. I have the honor of announcing the lay directors for these walks, Keith Bond and Cindy Givan. I know they will covet your prayers as they listen and seek to do God's will.

Mark your calendar for Gathering on April 4, we meet at 7:00 PM at Memorial Methodist Church (where Candlelight was held). We will sing, laugh, worship, and share Holy Communion. This will also be a special service as we will have "open mic". This is a time that our new pilgrims may tell of their 4th Day testimonies. This is not mandatory, only if you feel led to share.

Don't worry about getting a baby sitter for that night. We've got that covered. Childcare is provided at the Gatherings and Candlelight. We know it's hard for those little ones to sit still for so long, so we provide a safe place for them to play during our worship time.

Again, pilgrims of Walk #110 and #111, welcome to the E'town Emmaus family. God bless each and every one of you!

Continuing your Journey: Fourth Day

As Walk 110 and 111 complete, take a moment to reflect on your journey. In living our Fourth Days, we are encouraged to continue to grow in relationship with Christ and live as faithful disciples in all of life. How will you carry out these three core teachings this month?

- Piety: Giving our Hearts to Christ
- Study: Giving our Minds to Christ
- Action: Giving our Hands to Christ
